K'taka CM asks Fadnavis to regulate flood discharge

Karnataka: Karnataka chief minister B S Yediyurappa on Monday wrote a letter to his Maharashtra counterpart Devendra Fadnavis urging to regulate the flood discharge from the Koyna reservoir.

"It has been observed that the State of Maharashtra has been releasing a huge quantity of floodwater from Koyna reservoir to the Krishna River and its tributaries since last few days. Due to the heavy dis-charge from Maharashtra reservoir, the northern Karnataka districts are severely af-fected and the situation is alarming," Yediyurappa said in the letter.

Requesting to direct the concerned authorities of Ma-harashtra to regulate the flooddischarge from the reservo-irs of Maharashtra, the Karnataka Chief Minister said. "The discharge shall be regu lated in incremental basis and not abruptly releasing the huge quantity. The releases shall be intimated to Karnataka officers well in advance on a regular basis."

He also urged Fadnavis to take action in this regard, he said: "Coordination between officers of both the States is essential at this hour and the same need to be achieved forthwith so that any loss to the properties, human and livestock is averted."

"The outflow from Koyna reservoir has been increased from 20,000 to 50010 cusecs and then from 50,000 to 80,000 and finally to 1.25 lakh cusecs in a span of two days. The districts like Belagavi, Vijayapura, Ra-ichur, Kalburgi and Yadgir severely hit by the flood discharge in the Krishna River," read

1 lakh people affected by flood in Andhra districts

lakh people have been affec ted due to floods in the East and West Godavari districts of Andhra Pradesh on Monday. However, the flood water levels in both the districts are gradually receding, said a report from the State Disaster Management Authority on Monday.

"The floodwater has hit the normal life of over 80,000 people in the East Godavari district and over 26,000 people in the West Godavari district. Howe ver, no loss of human life has been reported so far, read the report. The authority in its report also added that the water level in various areas like Chintur, Kunavarm, Polavaram, and Dowaleswaram are decreasing. However, the first level warning alert continues as the river is flowing above the first level warning mark.

The report also informed that the water level at the Bhadrachalam district of Telangana is steady but may increase gradually and reach 1st warning level by the evening of August 5. According to the report,

Ayodhya dispute: SC to start hearing from today

Court-Appointed Mediation Panel Failed To Break Status Quo

New Delhi: The Supreme Court is set to commence day to-day hearing from Tuesday in the politically sensitive case of Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid land dispute in Ayodh-ya after the efforts to arrive at an amicable settlement through mediation have failed. A five-judge Constitution bench headed by Chief Justice Ran-jan Gogoi will hear the case.

The bench, also comprising Justices S A Bobde, DY Chan-drachud, Ashok Bhushan and SANazeerhad on August 2 taken note of the report of the three-member mediation panel, headed by former apex court judge FMI Kalifulla, that the mediation proceedings which went on for about four months have not resulted in any final

"The hearing which will be on day-to-day basis until the arguments are concluded will start with the appeals arising out of the two suits. The learned counsel(s)...in the appeals arising out of the afore-said suits may, for the convenience of the court, indicate the pleadings and the evidence on which they propose to rely. so that the officials of the Regis try can keep the said documents ready for perusal of the court," the bench had said in its order. The top court had on July 18, asked the mediation panel to inform the court about the outcome of their proceedings as on

The mediation panel, also comprising spiritual guru and founder of the Art of Living foundation Sri Sri Ravishankar and senior advocate and renowned mediator Sriram Panchu, had said in its report submitted on Thursday that the Hindu and the Muslim parties havenot been able to find a solu-tion to the vexatious dispute. The apex court, which on March 8 referred the matter for mediation, had asked for incamera proceedings to be completed within eight weeks, but later granted time till August 15 after the panel's earlier report said that the mediators were "optimistic" about an amicable

After the bench on August 2 passed the order, senior advo-cate Rajeev Dhavan, appearing for a Muslim party had raised several technical issues and said he will need 20 days to argue the various issues arising

Live streaming of proceeding will require deliberation, says Supreme Court

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Monday said that the live streaming of the proceeding in Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid land dispute case would require deliberation and institutional decision-making. A bench headed by Justice S A Bobde said that it would look into the administrative side of the matter after senior advocate Vikas Singh, appearing on behalf of former RSS idealogue KN Govindacharya, mentioned the petition before it, seeking live streaming and recording of the proceedings in the Ayodhya case. Singh submitted that for the time being, at least the recording of proceedings can be done and at the later stage, live streaming could be considered. ANI in the matter in detail and there should not be any curtailment on the hearing. While he was raising different aspects of the matter and how the appeals have to be heard, the bench had told him "don't remind us what we have to do".

"We know there are many aspects and we will deal with all these aspects. Let the hearing start," it had said. Dhavan also raised the issue of pending writ petition filed by senior BJP leader Subramanian Swamy and the application filed by a Muslim body.

The court which had perused a report about the progress of mediation process till July 18, had said that its contents will remain confidential as per its earlier order. Fourteen ap-pealshave been filed in the apex court against the 2010 Allaha-bad High Court judgment, delivered in four civil suits, that the 2.77-acre land in Ayodhya be partitioned equally among the three parties - the Sunni Waqf Board, the Nirmohi Akhara and Ram Lalla.

On December 6, 1992, the Babri Masjid, constructed at the disputed site in the 16th century by Shia Muslim Mir Baqi, was demolished. The central government on January 29 this year moved the apex court seeking its nod to return the 67acre undisputed acquired land around the disputed site to orig-

The0.313acreplot, on which the disputed structure stood before it was demolished by 'kar sevaks' on December 6, 1992, was within the 2.77-acre disputed premises., the plea said. The government had then acquired 67.703 acres, including the 2.77-acre plot, through a legislation in 1993. The Ram Janambhoo mi Nyas (RJN) is the owner of as much as 42 acres of the acquired non-disputed land. PTI

Respond to acid attack victims' plea: SC to states

New Delhi: The Supreme Court Monday granted four weeks to states, UTs and others as last opportunity to file their responses to the PIL relating to the suffering of acid attack victims across India and questioning the sale of acid in open market.

The top court, which had issued notices to and Union Terri tories on the PIL in February 2018, noted that till now only 13 have have filed their responses

A bench of Justices Deepak upta and Aniruddha Bose asked lawyer details from the affidavits filed so far by the states, on the steps taken to help the victims of the acid attacks and regulate the sale of acids in these states.

"Prepare the chart as to which states have followed the guidelines of the Supreme Court and which have not complied," the bench told Kapur. She said that so far, the Ministries of Home Affairs and the Women and Child Development and states like Goa, Mizoram, Odisha, Sikkim, Arunachal Pradesh, Meghalaya, Karnataka, Chattisgarh and Jharkhand have filed replies. рті

DGCA suspends SpiceJet pilot's licence

New Delhi: The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) has suspended the flying licence of the pilot-in-command of SpiceJet's Delhi-Shirdi flight, which had skidded off the runway while landing in Shirdi earlier this year. The regulator's preliminary probe found that the Boeing 737 (VT-SGJ) operating as SG-946 on April 29, 2019, had an unstable fi-nal approach and touched late leading to the runway excursion.

"During final (approach), the aircraft was high on approach. Crew did a long flare and aircraft touched down about 5,300 feet from runway threshold (usable part of the runway).... Resulted in runway excursion. says an order issued by joint DGBS Rai.

The regulator had issued a show cause notice to the captain of this flight "for endangering safety of aircraft and passengers on board." After examining his reply, the DGCA has suspended his licence for a year from the date of the incident.
