Abide by law or begin 2026 in lock-up: Surat Police warn revellers ahead of New Year's Eve

Express News Service
Vadodara, December 29

FROM THE sky, the ground as well as through the eyes and ears of the personnel on duty, the Gujarat Police are keeping a close watch on revellers to enforce strict law and order in major cities of the state in the run-up to New Year's Eve. On Monday, even as the Vadodara city police undertook an Area Dominance March, the Surat City Police issued a stern warning to stay within "the line of law" or "begin your New Year in the lock-up."

In view of New Year's Eve celebrations, Surat City Commissioner of Police Anupamsinh Gahlaut on Monday elaborated on the preparations made by the police to ensure maintenance of law and order on December 31.

Gahlaut sounded a clear warning against breaking the law, including consumption of drugs - which would attract an FIR. He said, "We have received 13 applications from event organisers in the city. The Surat police are with you, so far as you follow the law. So long as you do not indulge in acts that cause trouble to women and other revellers. Do not overspeed... if you try to tease women or indulge in stunts, cut cakes with swords or such acts, we will come after you..."

Pointing out that although the Surat Police have begun efforts for rehabilitation of individual drug users, the New Year's Eve will be an exception as anyone caught with traces of intoxicant in their body samples, will face an FIR.

"On December 31, if anyone is found having consumed drugs, we will lodge cases against them. On other days we help in rehabilitation but on December 31, we will strictly check for narcotics consumption. As part of the preparations, 5,000 police personnel have been deployed and 45 checkpoints have been set up. We have 380 alcohol detectors, of which 180 are baton-based, to allow testing from a distance. As many as 200 breath analysers are handed out to SOG, DCB and other local police. We also have anti-narcotics kits," Gahlaut said.

He added that the city police would install additional cameras at "blind spots" to monitor movement in the city on New Year's eve. "We have 900 body-worn cameras... In some spots where there are no CCTVs, we are putting up solar-based and wireless cameras for live monitoring through the control room... We request people to celebrate by respecting the rule of law. If you break the sanctity of the law in place, it is certain that you will begin 2026 in a police lock-up...", Gahlaut said."

In Vadodara, the city police undertook an area domination exercise and Commissioner of Police Narasimha Kumar appealed to the citizens to follow the law. Kumar said, "An action plan has been prepared by the city police. For this, a crackdown on bootlegging, identification of persons indulging in peddling drugs..."

He added, "About 8,000 CCTV cameras, 750 body-worn cameras and eight drone cameras will be deployed as we have our eyes on the city from the ground, the sky and even the shoulder of the officers. We have 500 breath analysers and four NDPS kits that will enable us to find offenders."

Kumar added that while a police force of over 2,000 personnel, including six Deputy Commissioners of Police and 13 Assistant Commissioners of Police would be deployed in the city, an additional 400 police personnel will help in traffic management along with TRB jawans while 700 home guards will volunteer in the city. Kumar said, "We do not have many events within the city but the celebrations are expected to be held in the rural side... In some applications received, we have strictly asked the organisers to ensure that there is no drug or alcohol abuse at the venue, orderly parking and event management as well as obedience of law..."

Kumar added that in view of the possibility of an increase in bootlegging during New Year, the city police has also decided to crack down on deliveries on two-wheelers, many of which are being deployed to transport alcohol undetected. "We are cracking down on these kinds of activities."

Increased vigil in four major cities

As part of preparations for New Year celebrations, police in all four major cities have briefed officers and personnel, asking all police stations to have personnel on the ground to provide security and prevent untoward incidents.

Regarding the preparations in Ahmedabad city, DCP (Crime) Ajit Rajian said, "All our teams will be on the ground carrying out drug tests with field kits, liquor tests and we will also have drone surveillance in places of public gatherings."

The Ahmedabad City Police will carry out vehicle checks. Mahila police personnel will be deployed in plainclothes.

In Rajkot city, DCP (Crime) Jagdish Bangarwa said, "We have begun vehicle checking and we have deployed drug test kits."

THREE ARRESTED, 22KG OF 'PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCES' SEIZED FROM FACILITY

Gujarat ATS, Rajasthan Police bust 'illegal drug-making unit'

The operation led to the seizure of 5 kg of Alprazolam and 17 kg of a mixture of two sedatives, Prazepam and Temazepam, which are more potent, police said

Express News Service
Rajkot, December 29

THE GUJARAT Anti-Terrorist Squad (ATS), in a joint operation with Rajasthan Police, has busted an alleged illegal drug manufacturing unit in Rajasthan and arrested three persons, while one suspect remains absconding.

The operation led to the alleged seizure of around 22 kg of psychotropic substances, including 5 kg of Alprazolam and 17 kg of a mixture of two sedatives, Prazepam and Temazepam, which are more potent than Alprazolam.

According to Gujarat ATS, Police Inspector P B Desai received specific intelligence that three men were illegally manufacturing Alprazolam, which is a benzodiazepine-class sedative commonly abused as a narcotic, at APL Pharma Company in Bhiwadi city of Rajasthan.

After verifying the inputs through technical surveillance and human intelligence, a team led by Deputy Superintendent of Police Harsh Upadhyay, along with officers from the Jaipur unit of Rajasthan Special Operations Group (SOG) and Bhiwadi district police, conducted a raid on Sunday at the factory located in the RIICO Industrial Area of Bhiwadi city, Tapukara taluka.

"During the raid, a narcotic drug manufacturing unit was detected and approximately 22 kg of illegally manufactured psychotropic substances were seized, including about 5 kg of Alprazolam and approximately 17 kg of a mixture of Prazepam and Temazepam," the ATS said in a statement on Monday.

The arrested suspects have been identified as Anshul Anilkumar Shastri (40) of Agra, Uttar Pradesh, and Akhilesh Parasnath Maurya (41) and Krishnakumar Shrei Yadav (33) of Tapukara, Rajasthan.

Preliminary investigation allegedly revealed that Shastri owned a firm named Ansh Trading, through which he al-

WARNING TO BOOTLEGGERS IN RUN-UP TO NEW YEAR

Using road-rollers, Vadodara police destroy liquor worth Rs 1.71 crore

Express News Service
Vadodara, December 29

BEER CANS and bottles containing liquor worth Rs 1.71 crore were crushed under road-rollers by the Vadodara city police on Monday morning to send out a "strong message" to bootleggers ahead of the New Year festivities.

The stash, spread over a 700-metre stretch, is part of liquor worth over Rs 7.5 crore destroyed within Vadodara city limits in 2025 so far.

On Monday morning, liquor seized by 17 police stations in Vadodara city was laid out on a deserted road leading to Koyali on the city's outskirts, where two road rollers were brought in to crush the containers. As senior police officials and personnel watched the confiscated muddamal being destroyed, several litres of bootlegged liquor spilled onto the road.

The confiscated alcohol being crushed on Monday. EXPRESS missioner Narasimha Kumar said the exercise was undertaken to send out a "strong message" to bootleggers at the end of the year. "During the year 2025, the Vadodara city police have lodged over 3,000 cases under the Prohibition Law and made arrests of a similar number. These include cases of country-made and IMFL liquor involving manufacturing, possession, transport and consumption. Today's exercise was to destroy 50,000 units of seized alcohol worth Rs 1.71 crore. We have carried out similar exercises on five previous occasions, with more than Rs 7.54 crore worth of liquor destroyed this year," Kumar said.

Men who 'vandalised' Christmas decorations inside mall granted bail

Express News Service
Rajkot, December 29

FIVE MEN who allegedly made a forced entry into Palladium Mall on December 27 and vandalised Christmas decorations, were on Monday granted bail by a local court, Ahmedabad city police officials said.

Five men under the banner of an unknown group "Bhagwa Sena" (saffron army) forcefully entered Palladium Mall and caused damage to the decorations.

According to the FIR filed on the basis of a complaint by a security guard at Vastrapur police station on December 27, the five men - including a 19-year-old - forcibly entered the mall, argued with the guards, pushed past them and began throwing the Christmas trees on the ground. The FIR describes the Christmas trees as "decoration tree setup". Videos of the purported incident had gone viral.

legedly procured and supplied raw materials required for the illegal manufacture of Alprazolam along with his associate Akhilesh Maurya. They allegedly roped in Krishnakumar Yadav, who had knowledge of the manufacturing process.

The ATS said the suspects were selling the manufactured Alprazolam to an individual identified as Sunny Yadav. A case has been registered against the suspects at Bhiwadi Phase-3 (UIT) Sector 3 police station under Sections 8 and 22 of the NDPS Act.

Officials said further investigation is underway to determine the duration of the operation, identify the supply network, trace proceeds of the crime, and ascertain the involvement of other individuals. Earlier, on December 8, the Gujarat ATS had busted another alleged illegal factory manufacturing mephedrone in Rajasthan's Jodhpur district, seizing 40 kg of liquid mephedrone and arresting six persons.

They continued with the vandalism on the first, third and fourth floors of the mall before being stopped by guards who then called the police.

They were booked under BNS sections 333 (trespass), 189(2) (unlawful assembly), 191(2) (rioting), 190 (common intent of unlawful assembly), and 324(2) (mischief). They were detained from the spot and later arrested.

Inspector L L Chavda said, "We arrested all five of the accused and took preventive steps against them. We produced them in court, which granted them bail."

Asked why BNS sections regarding outraging of religious sentiments or promoting enmity between groups had not been added to the FIR, Chavda said, "They did not say in public that they have a problem with a certain community or religion, which is why those sections were not added."

Central Excise Inspector, wife sentenced to jail in DA case

Express News Service
Rajkot, December 29

THE CBI court in Ahmedabad on Monday convicted and sentenced a central excise inspector and his wife to prison in a Disproportionate Assets (DA) case.

Kaushik Anvantrai Karelia, Inspector, Central Excise and Service tax, Bhavnagar, was handed five years of Rigorous Imprisonment (RI) with a fine of Rs 63 lakh. His wife, Pooja Karelia, was sentenced to 1 year imprisonment with a fine of Rs 50,000 for abetment of the offence, a CBI statement said.

CBI registered the case on September 30, 2013 against Karelia, the then Appraiser/Preventive Officer, Kandla Special Economic Zone (KASEZ), on allegations that he had, during the period between September 1, 2008, and March 31, 2013, amassed assets disproportionate to their known source of income to the tune of Rs 19,86,661.

The CBI statement said, "During investigation, the check period was revised to April 1, 2004, to March 20, 2013. After the investigation, CBI filed chargesheet on September 3, 2014, against Kaushik Karelia and Pooja Karelia, for amassing assets to the tune of Rs 57,60,729.15, disproportionate to their known source of income, which is 183.57% in excess to their known source of income."

Two from state held in Rs 1.9-cr 'digital arrest' fraud case

Press Trust of India
Hyderabad, December 29

POLICE ON Monday arrested two persons from Gujarat in connection with a 'digital arrest' cyber fraud case in which a woman here was allegedly duped of Rs 1.95 crore.

The cybercrime police apprehended the accused, who allegedly played a crucial role in the fraud by using multiple mule bank accounts to receive and withdraw the money.

The funds were later transferred to Dubai-based cyber fraudsters through Hawala networks. Deputy Commissioner of Police V Aravind Babu said in a statement.
